I'm done! I am only answering questions related to the case. I do not recall anything else.

Dr. Nance,

There is a Metra train that runs from the South Holland area and drops off at Millennium Station, which is approximately two or three blocks south of our office. There are also several parking garages near our office, including a publicly accessible one under 111 E. Wacker. You are free to get and/or park here however you please.

Thanks,

Adam

For the record, there is no "L" transportation to your location. I am not sure what bus goes to your location. When visited other attorneys at this location, they gave access to their underground parking; and it was paid for by the company. Why is this not the occasion for your company? The other law firm had 5 floors.
